I'm proud to serve as the ranking House Democrat on the Congressional-Executive Commission on China.

The Congressional-Executive Commission on China was created by Congress in October 2001 to monitor human rights and the development of the rule of law in China, and to submit an annual report to the President and Congress. It consists of nine Senators, nine Members of the House of Representatives, and five senior Administration officials appointed by the President.

For more information on the Committee and their work, please click here .