Click here for information about U.S. Department of Education programs.

Information about student aid is available here .

Frequently Asked Questions:

How do I apply for student loans for college?

You can apply for a Federal Student Aid PIN (Personal Identification Number), fill out a FAFSA, and apply for federal student aid from the U.S. Department of Education online at http://studentaid.ed.gov .

If you have questions regarding loan options or the application process, contact your school's financial aid office directly.

I am unable to repay my student loans because I am disabled and on a limited income. Can Congressman Walz's office help me?

The U.S. Department of Education offers resources for individuals who are unable to repay their student loans. Information is available here .

In some very limited circumstances, the U.S. Department of Education will allow a discharge of your student loans. For information on how to apply for a discharge of your student loans, please visit the link above, or contact my Rochester office.