Mankato, MN — Next Thursday, Congressman Walz will hold a town hall meeting to hear from southern Minnesotans about their ideas and concerns on health insurance reform. The general public, as well as members of the media are invited to the event. This August, Walz has held a series of discussions across southern Minnesota in his district offices, workplaces, and homes to hear directly from southern Minnesotans about our health care system.

Event: Town Hall on Health Insurance Reform
Time: 6 – 8 PM; doors open at 5:30pm
Date: Thursday, August 20
