

2013 Congressional Art Competition: An Artistic Discovery

Each spring, Members of the U.S. House of Representatives sponsor a nation-wide high school art competition, An Artistic Discovery. This contest is open to all high school students in the First District.

The winning entry from the First District will be displayed in the Cannon Tunnel, leading to the U.S. Capitol, for an entire year.

The following types of artwork can be submitted:

- Paintings - including oil, acrylics, and watercolor
- Drawings - including pastels, colored pencil, pencil, charcoal, ink, and markers
- Collage
- Prints - including lithographs, silkscreen, and block prints
- Mixed Media
- Computer Generated Art
- Photography
